

exhibition & display curating

Do you have a great idea for an exhibition? Or an event or anniversary in your organisation to commemorate or celebrate? Do you need to communicate important or innovative ideas to your audience?

Cultural Connotations can provide experienced staff to explore concepts, develop themes, and locate relevant objects in various fields of expertise. This specialist knowledge is then combined with a thorough understanding of audience needs and presentation techniques in order to generate innovative and memorable presentations.

Our team of specialists has expertise in international art, archaeology, design, history, craft, heritage and photography.