

exhibition management & touring

Exhibitions can be large or small, location-specific or prepared for a tour, even expressly targeted to children or your corporate clients. We can manage exhibition projects for you from conception through to execution.

Exhibitions can be fun, innovative, traditional, hands-on, high-tech, or contemplative. Most of all they should be engaging.

Our team of experts can

- develop
- implement
- install, and
- manage temporary and permanent exhibitions and displays.

Our service can also include the development and organisation of

- catalogues
- brochures
- web sites
- marketing programmes
- education material
- transport and scheduling
- touring manuals
- and everything else that goes with the staging of exhibitions.

Cultural Connotations has a proven record in managing tours and exhibitions effectively, efficiently and safely.
