

audience development

We can develop effective communications and marketing strategies for your organisation and for individual cultural projects. This includes identifying programme opportunities for the various audiences and stakeholders you wish to reach.

Our strategies focus on assisting you to increase public awareness about and engagement with your programmes and events.