

r & m mcgovern prize

The prize is a prestigious acquisitive award that promotes excellence in painting. It is held every three years at the Maroondah Art Gallery, Melbourne.

The theme for 2009 was I paint because... Celeste Chandler won first prize with her work Untitled 5 (from the series 'naked in the dark'). The judges were: Jane Scott, TarraWarra Museum of Art; Adam Worrall, National Gallery of Australia; and Lewis Miller, artist.

The award was managed by Cultural Connotations.

cultural connotations was engaged to

- liaise with artists
- coordinate the judging

- coordinate the catalogue
- develop the promotional campaign

venue

maroondah art gallery, melbourne, 4 june - 18 july 2009

cultural connotations team

annette welkamp

lynda patullo, green poles design