

board appointment

Annette Welkamp was recently appointed to the Board of Management of the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce Australia. The NCCA promotes trade and investment relations between Australian and Dutch organisations and individuals. It also provides a business networking forum for its members in a professional and social atmosphere.