

significance statements

We have prepared a number of significance assessments of art, museum and archive collections. They are written using a common national framework and the reports help communicate the meanings and values of the collections. Each report includes a summary significance statement. Some statements are included on our website at Reports: project reports.