

interpretation conference

Annette recently presented at the National Association for Interpretation conference in Townsville. Her paper focused on our recent work for Buda Historic Home & Garden in Castlemaine. It was entitled A new (interpreted) life for an old home. For more on this conference, got to the NAI website